

Big 4 Sessions Deadlocked On German Unity, Free Elections

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
BERLIN (AP)—The Western Big Three conferred at length today to see what might be salvaged out of the foreign ministers conference in spite of a deadlock with Russia on the German problem.

Secretary of State Dulles, France's Bidault and British Foreign Secretary Eden discussed the crisis at Eden's headquarters and also pieced together their strategy for the afternoon session of the Big Four in the Russian Embassy.

Ahead of them lay the certainty that Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov would drop in one more unacceptable thesis on German unification. Molotov promised he would have a detailed plan for "free elections." By the very fact that he has one, he served notice he has little use for the Western plan.

Want Free Elections
The Western plan calls for free and secret voting first. Moscow believes in merging the East and West German governments into a provisional regime that would perpetuate its German Communist vassals.

French sources reported that the Western delegates still figured the conference might possibly produce some lessening of tension in Germany by easing trade and frontier problems, and that a chance exists for negotiation on Korea and Indo-China in some form.

But for German unity, the outlook was bleak unless Molotov did the unexpected.

Austrian independence hadn't even been touched yet, so there was no way of knowing if the Kremlin had a veto ready or not for the long-delayed Austrian treaty.

CHILD WELFARE PLANS FOR 15TH ANNUAL SESSION

Plans for the 15th anniversary meeting of the Adams County Child Welfare Services on Tuesday, April 6; the report of the nominating committee and a progress report by Miss Bettie Livermore, child welfare director, were the highlights of the February meeting of the services' Advisory Committee Tuesday evening.

The place for the annual dinner meeting has not been decided upon but special plans are being made for the observance which will mark the completion of 15 years of the child welfare service in this county.

The Rev. Robert Knechel and Mrs. Sizer J. Burton were nominated for positions on the Advisory Committee to fill two vacancies. Five members of the committee whose terms expire have been nominated for re-election. They are: Rev. A. W. Geigley, Mrs. Harold Steiner, Mrs. Edwin Benner, Mrs. Guy Wenk and Corman Day. Girl, 14, Recovering From Rare Malady

Fourteen-year-old Gwenn Jacobs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jacobs, E. Broadway, was reported today as "much improved" at the Warner Hospital after having been near death from a rare malady.

She is suffering from a toxic encephalitis, or inflammation of the brain, presumed by physicians to have been caused by an allergy. Doctors said the situation was rare "and the odds are that it will be the only case of its type recorded here."

The Delone High School Freshman had two teeth pulled Friday afternoon after returning from school. Saturday afternoon she complained of being ill, but appeared to feel better Sunday afternoon. Monday morning she was in a coma and physicians were called. She was removed to the hospital where she remained in a coma until Tuesday morning.

Coronation Scene At Show

The Clerk of Courts office was off to a good January start in its hopes to establish a second consecutive all-time record for the issuance of marriage certificates.

The official report submitted by Kenneth W. Johns showed that 19 applicants received permits to marry last month. However, five couples on Saturday were necessary to edge ahead of the January, 1953, total of 18.

Past statistics indicate that the January, 1954, list of 19 established a record for the month. Five years ago only 13 were noted, while ten years ago the number was seven.

Last year, 299 couples secured marriage licenses, exceeding by five the previous high set in 1946 following the rush of men returning home from World War II service.

TO ASK BAN ON HORSES, RABBITS AND CHICKENS

Gettysburg's Board of Health Tuesday evening decided to ask council to prohibit the keeping of horses, rabbits and chickens in the borough.

Meeting in the council rooms in the Fire Engine house, the board discussed the problem of horses and chickens in the borough at some length, then voted to draw up a suggested ordinance at its March meeting for presentation to the borough council. Council will be asked to approve the measure banning the keeping of all animals other than domestic pets.

At the present time there are "about 8 to 10" horses and two ponies stabled in Gettysburg. The number of chickens was not estimated, but Borough Health Officer Donald Staub said "quite a number of families still raise a few chickens" in town. A number of rabbits are also raised in the borough, it was added.

At the present time the borough ordinance bans only the keeping of hogs in the community, and the suggested ordinance will be an amendment to the present one.

KING, QUEEN CROWNED AT BENEFIT PLAY

Two-year-old Dan Greenawalt, R. 5, who polled 13,358 votes, and Debby Fair, 3, of Gettysburg, were pronounced kiddie king and queen, Tuesday night at the opening of the Gettysburg Exchange Club benefit show, "You Can't Beat Fun," on the stage of the high school auditorium.

Judge W. C. Sheely, who presided over the coronation of the "Royal Family," also named Larry Kepner and David McDermitt as first and second prince and Stephanie Brown and Nancy Lee Sherman as first and second princesses before a large first-night crowd. The play will be given again Thursday evening.

According to Mrs. Augusta Phelps Munro, a few reserved seat tickets still remain for the Thursday show. Tomorrow night, general admission tickets will again be on sale at the door, which will open at 7 o'clock.

Sixteen children between the ages of one and seven were the recipients of gifts in the contest for "Royal Family" honors.

Juvenile runners-up included: David James, Glen Funt Jr., Jeffrey Nunemaker, Arthur Roth II, Terry Keckler, Diane Kargas, Janis Lentz, Gwyneth Shoop, and Becky Dreas. Judge Sheely presented corsages to the six mothers of the "Royal Family."

Twenty-four members of Mrs. Frederick Tilberg's kindergarten class drew a round of applause with a rhythm band review directed by Andy Miller. Carol Codori led the marching and singing numbers.

AUDIT OF 'REC' BOARD'S WORK FILED TUESDAY

Lack of a quorum prevented the meeting of the Gettysburg Recreation Board scheduled for Tuesday evening in the Fire Engine House but the members who did appear for the session received the annual audit of the board's accounts made by the borough auditors.

Attendance by too many of the directors at the Exchange Club show prevented the holding of the Recreation Board meeting, according to the men who did turn out for the session.

The audit, covering a 15-month period, from September 16, 1952, to December 29, 1953, showed income of $13,495.49 and expenditures of $10,546.83.

Income included a balance of $2,716.19 as of September 16, 1952, receipts of $8,750 from the Gettysburg Community Chest, $2,000 from Gettysburg borough and $29.30 from other sources.

Mostly For Salaries
Expenditures were mostly for salaries. $3,860.84 was listed as spent directly for labor and salaries in connection with the operation of the Recreation field and the other activities of the association.

Another $4,000 was a grant to the Gettysburg School District.

NEED STUDENTS FOR MINISTRY SAYS SPEAKER

"There is a common denominator between the church, the college and the seminary," declared Rev. Francis E. Reinberger, professor of practical theology at the Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary in an address before the Woman's League of Gettysburg College Tuesday afternoon at Christ Lutheran Church.

"One cannot exist without the other in this unbroken circle of relationship which binds the three institutions together. The church serves the purpose of providing students for the seminary. This is a great need for today we find that we do not have a sufficient supply of students for the seminary. The dilemma of the church in this respect is precarious. In order to help with this problem the seminary is training young women in special work along the lines of Christian education," explained Rev. Mr. Reinberger.

"The college trains the spirit as well as the mind of a student," he said. "We find that this is especially true here at Gettysburg College. The college is not only interested in filling the student with facts but (Continued on Page 3)

SENIORS HELP IN WELFARE WORK

Two Gettysburg College Seniors have started part-time work with the Adams County Rural Child Welfare Services.

The work by the students, Edith Muller, Long Island, and Marian Stroehman, Williamsburg, has been arranged in cooperation between the college, rural child welfare and county commissioners and will permit the young women to gain experience in the field of Child Welfare while completing their course in social work at the college.

Miss Muller began her duties with the county unit Tuesday and Miss Stroehman began today. They will spend a half day each week working for the county child welfare unit.

Miss Bettie Livermore, secretary of child welfare, said the young women will carry out specified tasks including accompanying the children to physicians or dentists, purchasing clothes, filling out forms and other "paper work" so that they will gain a general knowledge, by actual work, of the procedures and work of the county unit.

Both young women plan to enter Child Welfare work upon their graduation from the local college.

Here And There News Collected At Random

When death came to John D. Lippy Sr., Tuesday morning, Gettysburg and Adams County lost one of its most distinguished citizens. He was a gentleman in every sense of the word, a devoted husband, a respected father and a good Christian. He was well known and beloved throughout the county.

He was a veteran tailor and his customers, who remained faithful throughout the years of his business, came from a wide radius of Gettysburg.

Mr. Lippy was an immaculate dresser, he was courteous and considerate at all times. He was widely known for his honesty, integrity and his sterling qualities of all that measures up to a good, solid citizen.

It was our privilege to have known him for more than a quarter of a century and not once during those years have we ever detected a change in his character or his friendliness. He has always been a credit to his home, his business, his church, his fraternal affiliations and to his community. He was a gentleman of the "first water" and Gettysburg has been the beneficiary of his almost 70 years residence here.

Many will mourn his passing. They will miss him but his memory will linger on... a pleasant memory.

Many people continue to inquire about the availability of photographs of the 24 covered bridges in Adams County. These inquiries follow the series of articles and photographs of the old covered spans The Times published about a year ago. At one time Adams County boasted more than 70 covered bridges. Within a few years it will not be surprising if all these structures (Continued on Page 4)

LINCOLN'S TRIP HERE SUBJECT FOR HISTORIANS

Newspaper, eye-witness and second hand accounts of incidents on Lincoln's trip to Gettysburg in November, 1863, were presented to the members of the Adams County Historical Society at their February meeting Tuesday evening at the court house by Frederick S. Weiser, Glen Ellyn, Ill., Gettysburg College student and member of the society.

The stop at Hanover Junction when the Lincoln party probably changed engines but not coaches and then went on to Gettysburg without waiting for the overdue train of Governor Curtin and the stop at Hanover when Lincoln made a brief platform speech received chief attention in Mr. Weiser's account.

He read recollections of persons who had seen Lincoln and recounted the day's events to historians and the speaker also presented two Hanover newspaper accounts of the Lincoln stop there enroute to Gettysburg.

See Old Pictures
He said he is convinced that the controversial archives pictures recently discovered are of Hanover Junction, Pa., but seemed inclined to doubt that the tall figure in the high hat shown one of them is Lincoln. He said it seems well established that Lincoln did stop at Hanover Junction and did leave the train briefly there. A vote of thanks was given Mr. Weiser (Continued on Page 2)

Red Spy Is Revealing Soviet Secrets To U. S.; Fled Tokyo When Russian Mission Failed

TOKYO (AP)—A trustworthy American military source said today, a Russian diplomat - spy reported missing last week is revealing secrets of a Red spy ring in Japan to U. S. intelligence agents on Okinawa.

The source, who cannot be identified, said inside secrets from the "highly efficient agent" are helping crack the spy ring.

The diplomat, Yuri Alexandrovich Rastvorov, apparently fled in terror from the defunct Russian mission in Tokyo, the source said, helping "set up a spy network that has already penetrated some of the highest levels of the Japanese government."

"Rastvorov left out of fear for his life," the source said. "The claim of the Russian mission that he was kidnapped by the Americans is ridiculous."

Rastvorov disappeared Jan. 24. The American source said he fled after being ordered back to Moscow because he apparently was found "softening" toward Americans.

The source said a Russian intelligence agent accompanying a Russian ice-skating team here in January brought orders for Rastvorov to return home.

The source also said two other Russian agents in Tokyo—both friends of Rastvorov—wanted to give themselves over to the Americans, but are being sent home guarded by five other Russians.

The American source said Rastvorov is believed to be a lieutenant colonel in the MVD (secret police). Such a rank would make him a key figure in a spy ring here.

200 Hindu Pilgrims Crushed To Death At Ganges Festival

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—An estimated 200 Hindu pilgrims were crushed to death and at least 1,000 were injured early today at Allahabad when a crowd three million strong stampeded into the holy waters at the joining of the Ganges and Jumna rivers, according to reports reaching here.

Eyewitness accounts said 200 square yards along the sandy banks of the Ganges were strewn with bodies after the police cleared away the panic-stricken throngs of bathers at the Kumbh Mela festival.

Official sources at Allahabad declined to comment on any aspect of the tragedy and would give no official casualty figures.

Prime Minister Nehru was to visit the Kumbh Mela today and Indian President Rajendra Prasad had been scheduled to join the bathers. But there were no indications where Nehru and Prasad were when the stampede occurred.

The vast horde of pilgrims had gathered at the rivers' confluence in eastern India in observance of the orthodox Hindu belief that bathing there during the Kumbh Mela spares them the pangs of rebirth into a new incarnation.

The festival, from Jan. 14 to March 4, is held only every 12 years. It commemorates a battle on the site in Hindu mythology in which the gods defeated a horde of demons.

More than two million of the pilgrims had waited all night on the river banks amid cold rains. They hoped to bathe during the first three hours after the daylight eclipsed the new moon, considered by the Hindus the most auspicious time for the ceremony. Their frenzied eagerness to reach the waters resulted in the tragedy.

LAUNCH PLANS ON EXTRADITION

Proceedings have been started to extradite Irvin G. Turner, Hagerstown, one of four men accused of the attempted burglary of the Dave Oyer Motors Co. last December 27.

Turner, who was taken into custody over the weekend, has denied knowledge of the affair, police said, and has posted $25,000 bail at Hagerstown for an extradition hearing before the governor of Maryland.

Police here said Hagerstown police had no other charges against Turner than the one brought by Gettysburg police in connection with the Oyer burglary.

Two other men, also accused of taking part in the attempt to remove the safe at the Oyer Motors, are being held, in addition to the charges here, on other burglary charges in Maryland and other states.

State police here have been working since the beginning with Gettysburg police in the investigation in which one of the four involved, Paul LeRoy Sheppard, 23, Hagerstown, has admitted the burglary. Turner has denied the charge. Jack Otto Robinson, 23, Hagerstown, also in jail there on the charge, refuses to admit or deny, police said, and a fourth is still at large.

State Highway Dept. Today Begins Razing Covered Bridge On Alloway Creek; No Funds To Preserve It

The Adams County Historical Society reluctantly admitted at their February meeting Tuesday they have no money to move and preserve the 73-foot covered bridge over Alloway Creek, near Littlestown—and they might have found it difficult to accomplish even if they had the money for State Highway Department workmen today started tearing the roof off the old structure.

The historians had a letter from the State Highway Department offering to let the society move the bridge and preserve it—without cost to the highway department which is about to replace it with a new, two-span, concrete and steel structure.

The state's action will reduce to 23 the number of covered bridges in Adams County.

The doomed span links Mt. Joy and Germany Townships over Alloway Creek about a mile north of the Maryland line on the Kingsdale-Hanover Rd.

J. William Kendelehr Jr., state highway superintendent of maintenance for Adams County, said traffic on the road is heavy and that it is being widened from 12 to 16 feet from the Maryland line to Littlestown. Surveys have been made and demolition of the bridge began today.

It will be replaced by a concrete and steel bridge with two 36-foot spans. The new bridge will cross the creek at nearly the same spot as the wood structure. The approaches have been re-located slightly so that the new span would cut off about half the old bridge which will be removed and scrapped except for some of the heavier timbers in it.

Unhappy, But Hopeful
The old bridge is the southernmost of the old, picturesque structures in this county. It formerly was a county bridge but was taken over by the state in 1936.

The state highway department letter which was dated last December 8 did not reach the attention of the historians until Tuesday eve-

CENTERPIECE WINS AWARD

A table centerpiece designed by Miss Virginia Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Green, R. 2, won first prize among students' handicrafts at a display at the Farm Show held recently in Harrisburg. It was announced today, Miss Green, a tenth grade student at the Gettysburg High School, made the Yuletide centerpiece at a home economics project.

The prize-winning project consists of a foot-long sycamore log with red candles inserted at either end, sprigs of spruce, a pine cone and crimson ribbon, and two red Christmas bals. Officials at the Farm Show were impressed with the "art quality" in this project.

Miss Green, who was asked by her home economics teacher, Miss Mary Jane Schwartz, to carry out a holiday project, discussed it with her mother. "We decided on the pine and log centerpiece," said Miss Green. "I brought it to school after it was finished and Miss Schwartz displayed the project in the home economics laboratory during the holidays."

Miss Green says she plans to work on a sewing project in the spring.

The letter came from the office of A. J. Bedard, district engineer.

While members of the historical society were unhappy about the removal of the old bridge, they were pleased with what they hope may be a new attitude on the part of the state highway department toward the handling of old landmarks. One past president of the society recalled unpleasant memories of the unsuccessful fight by the society and many other groups and individuals in the community to save the old stone arch bridge over Marsh Creek on the Fairfield Rd. when a new concrete and steel bridge was placed beside it. The highway department at that time refused to let the old bridge stand.

Specialized Training
The college student needs a different type of training today than he did in other years," explained the speaker. "Life has become so complex that specialized training is being stressed. Today we need trained young men who understand and can impart the knowledge of sacred music. We need experts in church architecture. Sometimes a young man can serve God as a minister in one of these special fields, if he does not feel himself called to parish work."

"The college provides young students for the seminary," emphasized Rev. Mr. Reinberger. "And it is then the task of the seminary to turn them into 'adequate men of God.'" It must show them how to apply theology to contemporary needs."

Live To Serve God
"The only reason we live is to glorify God and to serve Him," he said. "We can serve Him not only as a minister, but in various other roles. If a young man feels that he is not called to the ministerial vocation, perhaps he can serve God as an architect, an engineer or a lawyer. All these institutions are serving together for a common purpose—God," concluded the speaker.

Mrs. M. Hadwin Fischer was in charge of the devotions. A musical program was presented during which Mrs. Clarence Bartholomew sang a selection of biblical songs, by Dvorak, "When Children Pray," by Beatrice Penner and "The Time For Making Sons Has Come," by James H. An executive board meeting was held at 1:45 o'clock preceding the session. Tea was served following the program. The table was decorated with red carnations and white candles and the napkins and refreshments reflected a Valentine motif.

Mrs. Robert Fortenbaugh and Mrs. Charles Glatfelter were co-chairmen of the committee of arrangements.

Hunting Club Names Officers:
Joseph E. Cordor was elected president of the Marsh Creek Hunting Club at a meeting held at the H. and H. Machine shop, South Washington street.

Other officers named included: Earle A. Deatrick, vice president and treasurer; J. Milton Bender, secretary; Clarence A. Bream, captain; H. H. Thomas, chief of commissary; and Allen Deardorff, Arthur E. Hutchison and John W. Hartman, executive committee. J. Milton Bender was elected historian.

An outstanding feature of the meeting was the report that the camp has a balance of $175 in the treasury, with all accounts paid. This balance is considered remarkable in view of the improvements made to the club buildings during the past few years.

Bonneauville: William P. Smith broke his arm last Wednesday while cranking a car.

"Daddy" Kepner, Known to Many, Dies At Age 80: James Anderson Kepner, 80, known to thousands of former pupils of the Meade school as "Daddy" Kepner, having been janitor there for nearly 20 years, died at his home on Confederate avenue at 4:30 o'clock this morning (Feb. 2) following an illness of less than a week.

K. C. Banquet Held Tuesday: More than 100 members and visiting guests attended the second annual banquet of the Gettysburg Council Knights of Columbus in the Eagle hotel Tuesday evening. C. E. Swisher, grand knight of the local council, presided and Edgar P. Hamilton, district deputy, acted as toastmaster.

William A. Conlon, master of the Fourth Degree, was the principal speaker. Other speakers included the Rev. Father Mark E. Stock, chaplain of the local chapter; William McSherry, Esq., advocate, and Edward J. Quinn, Wilkes-Barre.

Approve Bond For Treasurer: After his county bond was approved by the commissioners of the court, Samuel G. Spangler, York street, recently appointed treasurer of Adams county, took the oath of office before C. G. Taughinbaugh, register and recorder, and "pitched in" to clean up the large volume of work which had accumulated since the office was closed, December 26, 1928. He succeeds the late George W. Reichle.

Mr. Spangler, with the assistance of Donald A. Hammers, issued innumerable checks on vouchers, which had piled up since the office was closed with the death of Mr. Reichle, and countless dog licenses, all of which were payable before January 15.

20,000,000 Chinese Starve In Famine Stricken Region: Shanghai (AP)—Late reports from middle China and northern provinces indicate that famine and destitution are more severe and widespread than heretofore believed.

It now seems evident that this is the most serious catastrophe that has threatened China since the terrible drought of 1899. Large areas in Chahar, Hupeh, Shantung, Homan, Kansu, Shensi, Hopei, Shansi, Suiyuan and contiguous territory need urgent relief.

In its survey of conditions the special Peking Commission estimated that 12,000,000 face starvation and this number will probably reach 20,000,000 before the climax of the famine has been passed.

Y. W. Campaign Totals More Than $1,200: The YWCA drive for funds throughout the county has been extended for the next week because of inclement weather experienced by solicitors during the last few days. More than $1,200 cash and pledges is reported by Miss Edna Alvert, finance chairman for the drive.

Two Gettysburg Men Participate In Military Ball: Wenonah, N. J.—Jere Bream, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bream, East Middle street, and C. OUR WILL ROGERS
I have just finished reading the excellent story of Will Rogers by Homer Croy, who was for many years an intimate friend of Will Rogers. Here was a genuine American, if ever there has been one, and he had within him some of the blood of our native ancestors—the Indian.

In many ways Will Rogers was one of the most interesting characters ever produced upon this continent. He could well be called unique. He was a man of many colors, likes and dislikes, and Croy tells all about them in his book, and what he says is authentic, not hearsay. The real greatness of Will Rogers shines out in "Our Will Rogers." People who actually knew the man, loved him.

Will came from well-to-do, industrious parents, honored by all their Oklahoma neighbors and friends. He had a deal of good Irish-Welsh blood in him, as well as a quarter Indian. He was born November 4th (Election Day), 1879. But he never voted in his life! In his early days he liked to wander, and horses were to be his love throughout life. I once visited his ranch outside Beverly Hills, and walked out to get a good look at his favorite horse, "Soapsuds."

A wonderful characteristic about Rogers was his kindness toward all animals, and his democratic manner toward everyone, rich or poor. It was a quality of his greatness. He was forever doing little things for people on the sly, just to get the personal thrill, and that is what led to his great popularity and made him so beloved by all who knew him.

I met Will Rogers many times and liked him. I have a prized letter that he once wrote asking me to go to the "Follies," where he was engaged, that he might be "at your disposal any time." You will get a true portrait of Will Rogers by reading this book by Homer Croy. I was once asked about a line to place upon his memorial at Claremont, Oklahoma, and suggested my favorite saying of his: "Live your life so that whenever you lose, you are ahead."

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Bird Bravery."

Just Folks

I KNEW HIM WHEN
I knew him when he was a lad,
And now to boast of that I'm glad.
But, I'd be prouder this to pen:
That I had smoothed his pathway then.

"I knew him when," but wonder now
If I assisted him and how,
And for my helping hand does he
With gratitude remember me?

Though clearly see we never can
The boy today, the future man,
But each grown famous, as a lad
The friendship of a man has had.

I know all boys are men to be
With eager eyes and ears on me.
And when I say: "I knew him when,"

I wonder did he know me then.

64 Anti-Reds Seek Transfer To U. S.

PANMUNJOM (AP)—The Indians have asked the U. N. Command whether it will honor requests of 64 anti-Red war prisoners to go to a "belligerent power." Lt. Gen. K. S. Thimayya said Tuesday.

For the majority of the 64, that power is the United States. Speaking with newsmen after a short session of the Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission, Thimayya said he has asked the UNC if it will guarantee that the men would not be turned over to South Korea or Nationalist China. He said that if no assurance is forthcoming, the prisoners may have to switch their choice to neutral nations—such as 40 other prisoners have done.

A special act of Congress might be needed to admit any of the 64.

They met for their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Eckert, Springs avenue. Mrs. Lloyd Keefeauver, president, presided. Dr. Frank Clutz delivered a illustrated talk on "The Madonna In Art." Mrs. Roy Zinn sang several vocal selections and Mrs. George Miller rendered several violin selections. Mrs. Keefeauver accompanied both on the piano.

Jersey Boost Local Phone Rate To 10c

NEWARK, N. J. (AP)—Gone are the days of the nickel telephone call in New Jersey. By today, all of the coin telephones in the state were about ready to take dimes instead of nickels for local calls.

The new 10-cent rate, which went into effect Monday, was granted to the New Jersey Bell Telephone Co. last month by the state Public Utilities Commission.

All but 10 per cent of the pay phones in the state were operating under the new rate Monday. The company said 800 installers had changed most of the phones to the new rates, and that the job would be entirely finished by today.

LONDON (AP)—The House of Commons by a 34-vote majority Monday night approved the Conservative government's decision to arm British Tommies with the new 30-caliber Belgian rifle instead of Britain's own 28-caliber weapon. The 266-232 refusal of a Laborite motion to censure the government ended a long wrangle over the relative worth of the two rifles. The Laborites contended all NATO nations should adopt the British gun as standard equipment.

TRENTON, N. J. (AP)—Gov. Robert B. Meyner has offered a $25,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the slayers of mobster Willie Moretti. It was the first time a New Jersey governor offered a reward for the solution of a crime since the kidnapping of the Lindbergh baby in March, 1932. The reward then also was $25,000 and it was paid to several persons who recognized ransom bills.

The following letter received by Attorney Leighton C. Taylor, Bendersville, from Frank M. Moore, of Fairfield, is self-explanatory:

"I feel impelled to write you a few lines concerning your latest article which was published in 'The Gettysburg Times' on January 23rd, entitled, 'An Impregnable National Defense.'"

"I was so delighted with it that I have read it the second time. I am in agreement with you on every point. The soundness of your views, and the clarity of expression, combine to make it, perhaps, your best article to date."

"Much of its value lies in its timeliness, and I trust it will be appreciated by all who read it. I most sincerely congratulate you upon this splendid work."

Mr. Taylor's articles are always widely read and well received. He was for many years private secretary of the late U. S. Senator Boies Penrose, of Philadelphia. After the latter's death Mr. Taylor attended law school and graduated at the head of his class. He practiced law for some time in Washington, D. C., before retiring and moving to Bendersville. He is well educated, well read, an avid reader and a prolific and able writer. Many of his Times' articles have been reprinted in other publications of extensive circulation throughout the country. Incidentally, Mr. Taylor is an accomplished story-teller.

Queen Narriman Is Given Moslem Divorce

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—Beautiful, 20-year-old former Queen Narriman won a quick divorce in a Moslem religious court here Tuesday from hubby ex-King Farouk after a month of behind-the-scenes negotiations.

The girl Farouk first saw in 1949 as she shopped for her engagement ring with another man renowned custody of her 2-year-old son, Ahmed Fuad, and also dropped her demand that the ex-King personally pay her monthly alimony of 5,000 Egyptian pounds ($14,400) and a dowry allowance of 10,000 pounds ($28,800).

Instead, her lawyer said, she will ask President Mohamed Naguib's revolutionary government to pay her those moneys out of Farouk's properties in Egypt, which the new regime confiscated when it de-throned and exiled him in July 1952.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The unemployment situation in Pennsylvania's eastern anthracite region is the main topic of discussion for a meeting Monday of the Northeast Pennsylvania Industrial Development Commission.

The commission fixed the date yesterday for the session with state officials in Hazleton. "It appears certain that the meeting will help crystallize public opinion as to how critical the immediate situation is," said Victor C. Diehm, commission president.

SAYS PENTAGON LAND IS WORTH $50 AN ACRE

LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP)—An Adams County tract of land near the Pennsylvania-Maryland border seized for an underground Pentagon is worth $50 an acre, a real estate broker in business 25 years testified in court.

The valuation was made by Charles S. Gardner, Blue Ridge Summit, as he testified Monday in U. S. District Court. He was called in a case brought against the U. S. government by owners of the land.

One of the land owners, Alfred Holt of Baltimore, rejected a gov-

Gardner told the court he handled Holt's purchase of 280 acres for $1,300 in 1946. The government offer would amount to $2,800 for Holt's share.

Eugene Nogi, Scranton, attorney for Holt, said further testimony would be offered to show that valuable minerals are located on the land Holt owned.

Also seeking higher prices for their land are Charles S. Martin,

Mrs. Eleanor M. Linebaugh and Mr. and Mrs. William E. Orner. A motion by Nogi to have the jury withdrawn on the ground that testimony obtained by Robert MacLean, attorney for the government, from Gardner was "prejudicial" to the jury was overruled by Judge Frederick V. Pollmer.

GHS Routs Shippensburg 76-48 To Open 2nd Half; Scrubs Snap Losing Skein

George Forney's Gettysburg High School basketball team put on its best scoring display of the current season Tuesday evening when it laced Shippensburg 76-48 on the Greyhounds floor to get off to a fast start in the second half of the South Penn League.

Big Jay Schmitt set the pace in the point-gathering by landing eight goals and a trio of fouls for 19 points with Bobby Rohrbaugh and Stan Musser following on 13 and 10 points, respectively. All 11 Warrior players landed one or more points.

The Greyhounds gave the Warriors stiff opposition in the first half but wilted sadly in the second half when the locals put on a blistering attack which was good for 41 points.

Shippensburg, winless in league play this season, gained a 15-13 advantage at the end of the first period but fell behind 35-28 at half time.

Gettysburg's scoring in the first period came on a pair of goals by Schmitt and one each by Rohrbaugh and Ketterman, while all five free throws were converted, two each by Schmitt and George Penn and a single by Jeff Langsam. Keefe netted five points to lead the Greyhounds.

Rohrbaugh, Schmitt, Ketterman and Ronnie Williams bore the brunt of the attack as the Warriors moved ahead 35-28 at half time. Angle and Brunner kept Shippensburg in the running.

Put Game On Ice
The Forney-men left no doubt as to ultimate outcome with a 23-point performance in the third period. Schmitt, Musser, Pete Baughman and Fred Baker spearheaded the barrage. Meanwhile Shippensburg could secure but 10 points. Keefe netted four on a pair of goals.

Local reserves encountered little trouble in boosting the lead in the final period as a number of Greyhound scrubs also got into action. The victory was the eight against five setback for Coach Forney's much-improved outfit.

Rolf Johnson ran wild to tally 29 points as the Gettysburg reserves snapped a three-game losing streak in easily winning the preliminary contest 64-44. The point total was the largest for the reserves this season and gives them a 5-7 record.

Gettysburg will be host to Carlisle here Friday evening in another league double-header.

Penn State Meets Bullet 5 Here Tonight At 8

Penn State University's all-veteran basketball team, headed by All-State Jesse Arnette, comes here tonight to lock horns with the Gettysburg College Bullets. The contest will start at 8 o'clock, there being no preliminary game.

Once again the Bullets will be called upon to solve a sliding zone defense which has proved so effective for the Lions in compiling an 8-2 record, the same as that of the Bullets. Penn State will tower above the Bullet squad, its starting team having an average height of 6-3.

Tonight's game is expected to draw the largest crowd of the season to the Bullet gymnasium.

DELONE SCRUBS ROUT ST. JOHNS

Carroll Funk, forward on the Delone Catholic High School jayvee basketball team, set a new scoring record by connecting for 38 points Tuesday evening as his team routed St. Johns of Westminster 74-55 on the McSherrystown court.

Last week it was announced the junior varsity would play St. Johns instead of the varsity as previously announced and Coach Gene Bonel's outfit proved far too much for the game Marylanders who scrapped all the way despite being completely outclassed.

In the preliminary tilt, the Delone freshmen eked out a 26-24 victory over the Paradise Protector. Jim Strazella led the winners with 12 points while Portney looped nine for the Protector.

Delone's varsity and reserves will be in action Friday night when they entertain Lebanon Catholic at McSherrystown in a Central Penn Scholastic League game.

Mickey Mantle Is In Hospital Again

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP)—Mickey Mantle was back in the hospital again today with his ailing knee but the New York Yankee outfielder expects to be in top shape by the time spring practice rolls around.

Mantle had a torn cartilage removed from his right knee Nov. 2. Today doctors planned to remove some excess water from the knee either by minor surgery or with a needle.

Dr. Dan Yancey, Mickey's surgeon, said the knee was in good shape as a result of the November operation and the water condition wasn't considered serious.

GIANTS ADD 5 IN 48 HOURS; LOOK FOR MORE

By BEN PHLEGAR

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Giants, berated in recent seasons by their fans and foes alike for failing to come up with new faces, have added five new players in 48 hours and today were reportedly in the market for still more.

The latest addition is third baseman Joe Amalfitano, a bonus rookie from Loyola University of Los Angeles. Hailed as one of the brightest prospects to come out of southern California in a decade, the college flash is right-handed all the way.

He was signed late yesterday, just a day after the Giants completed their biggest deal in three years—sending Bobby Thomson and Sam Calderone to Milwaukee for pitchers Don Liddle and Johnny Antonelli, catcher Ebba St. Claire and infielder Billy Klaus.

Sign Hank Thompson
The Giants signed their other Thompson yesterday—the one with the "P" in his name. Hank Thompson, who probably will be their third baseman, got a raise to $15,000, up about $3,000.

Elsewhere in baseball the Braves signed pitcher Phil Paine, who is expected to take over Liddle's relief duties. Paine has been in the Army since earning a 2-0 record in 1951.

More Regulars Sign
Regulars who signed included catcher Del Rice of the St. Louis Cardinals, offered a stubborn man around contract time; third baseman Ray Boone of the Detroit Tigers; and first baseman Roy Sievers of the Baltimore Orioles.

Other signings: Pittsburgh, first baseman Dale Long, pitcher Bob Schultz, outfielder Dick Hall; Detroit, pitchers Dick Donovan and Frank Lary; Baltimore, pitchers Carlton Post and Bob Habenicht; Philadelphia Athletics, pitchers Charley Bishop and Arnold Portocarrero, catcher Al Robertson; Chicago Cubs, pitchers John Pvecha and Don Watkins, infielder Chris Kitzos; Chicago White Sox, third baseman Joe Kiriene, infielder Neil Berry.

G-BURG JUNIOR HI QUINTS TOP SHIPPENSBURG

The Gettysburg Junior High School basketball varsity and jayvee teams each upped their records to 5-4 for the campaign by sweeping a double-header from Shippensburg here Tuesday evening.

Scoring mostly on fast break and drive-in tactics, Coach Luther Sach's varsity led from start to finish to win the feature game 45-26. The locals controlled the boards pretty much throughout but their floor play left something to be desired.

Hess and E. Little played impressive games and led the scoring with 13 and 11 points, respectively.

Ira Kerr's reserves snapped a three-game losing streak when they copped the preliminary game 30-22. Scoring was evenly distributed among the participants.

Crowd Is Pleased

Jackie Jury, Gettysburg College covalist, and the "Three Bad Cowhands," Linda Grove, Ray Wilson and Linda Sterner, from Hanover, pleased the crowd. The master of ceremony was Ed Shoop, impersonating "Gary Moore," and William Harbaugh was "Lucky Lamson."

Other crowd pleasers were the entertaining "Rockette" chorus girls; Richard Shaffer and Thomas Brenner, who pantomimed and mimicked the tune "A Good Man Is Hard To Find"; 19 Adams County models in a fashion show, and David arfinkle and Philip Neith, "quick-change" artists.

The setting for "You Can't Beat Fun" was the Club Hi-De-Ho, a gay night-spot frequented by the Broadway Butterflies and Big Butter and Egg Men along the "Gay White Way," and enacted by ten Exchangees. During the performance, Eugene Weishaar, Diamond Lil; Richard Shaffer, Frivolous Sal; Thomas Brenner, Minnie the Moocher; Ernest Under, Big Bertha, and Roy E. Goldsmith, as a muscular Klondike Kate, presented an impromptu can-can revue.

In the finale, the spotlight shone on pretty Lou Ann Dunaney, the winner of nominations throughout Adams County to represent the "angel of world peace."

Audience prizes for participation in a quiz program included a camera, donated by Dave's Photo Service; a wood carving block, courtesy of the Wolf Supply Co.; a seven-piece glass set, given by Weishaar Bros., and a Valentine box of candy, courtesy of Peoples Drug Store.

Sixty-two members of the Gettysburg High School Choir, directed by Paul Grove, sang several numbers during intermission. Prelude music was furnished by J. Howard Smith at the Hammond organ. Miss Joanne Deardorff was the piano accompanist for the show.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Miller and Rev. and Mrs. Amos Meyers prepared and served a Chinese dinner. Valentine decorations were used on the tables.

Mrs. Bessie Warner and Mrs. Ada Boreland visited Mrs. Annie Smith.

CHILD WELFARE

ter homes is improving in the county with enlargement of the services' staff and contributions from the children's own parents for their support in foster homes jumped last year from $700 to $1,600, thus lightening the burden for the county. The agency's total income for last year increased to $5,000 and included sums from social security, public assistance and contribution from parents of foster children.

Miss Livermore predicted that child care this year in this county will not cost the county any more than before although more children are under care, the board rate has been adjusted upward and some other costs have risen.

Lauds Commissioners

She revealed that the county unit soon will have for the first time a "subsidized temporary home" where children for placement will be put for observation and study before being located in regular foster homes. She emphasized the continuing need for more foster homes which she said is becoming a "real handicap."

Declaring that the county commissioners are "performing their duties with respect to child care conscientiously and with real concern for the welfare of the children," Miss Livermore urged members of the committee to re-double their own efforts in behalf of the agency, especially in finding foster homes and in interpreting its work to the community.

Chairman Dean Stover presided over the meeting with the Rev. Mr. Geigley, C. C. Culp, Mrs. A. W. Butterfield, Mrs. Harold Stierner, Mrs. George F. Eberhart, Mrs. Benner, Mrs. Wilbur Miller, Mrs. Charles Yost, Miss Livermore and Mrs. D. A. Paddock of the staff attending.

Red Spy

nials that Rastvorov's whereabouts are known.

The source said Rastvorov has been under close American surveillance more than a year. "He was not being recalled because of any bungle," the informant said. "He was a highly efficient agent."

Winning Rastvorov away from the Soviets could be one of the greatest American Army intelligence exploits since the end of World War II.

A man of his rank would probably be able to name every important Communist spy in Japan and also provide clues for the missing leaders of the Japanese Communist party, who went underground about four years ago.

Know His Background

The American source said Rastvorov's pending defection probably was no surprise to the Americans officials.

American sources know intimate details of Rastvorov's background.

The former Red agent was born near the northeastern boundary of the Ukraine.

Ukraine for centuries had a strong anti-Russian independence movement that has survived more than 30 years of Red rule. During the last war, many Ukrainians welcomed the German invaders and even fought in German ranks.

Military sources said Rastvorov is 35 years old—born one year after the Russian Revolution—and is 5 feet 10. He weighs 173 pounds, and has typical Slav blonde hair and blue-gray eyes.

He was popular at the swank Tokyo Tennis Club, frequented by influential American and Japanese figures.

Speed up chick growth — and profits!

You BUY good chicks and put many hours of care into them to make money as soon as possible. But without good feed, losses and future culls may kill your profits.

Look into our "Starter"

A chick's requirements for most nutrients are highest during the first 6-8 weeks. That's why we take special care to provide the proper balance of vitamins, protein amino acids, minerals and other factors in our starting feed. That's why we use MILK, FISH and other superior natural sources as a base for our mash.

Our other poultry feeds are built on the same high performance lines. So whether you want to raise chicks with less trouble and more profit, or get more eggs at lower cost, we can help you. Let's talk it over.

BEESON FACES DELAY DURING PENSION PROBE

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nomination of Albert C. Beeson to the National Labor Relations Board faced indefinite delay today as the Senate Labor Committee called for full information on his pension rights with a San Jose, Calif., firm.

The committee, after questioning Beeson for six hours, voted 5-3 last night to defer Senate action on his nomination by President Eisenhower until it could question Paul L. Davies, president of the Food Machinery & Chemical Corp., or some other official of the firm.

The committee also wants to examine company records bearing on the Beeson pension situation.

Beeson, whose confirmation was recommended by the committee last week on a 7-6 party line vote, is former industrial relations vice president of that company. Committee Democrats have opposed his nomination, contending he is a "company man" and thus could not approach his NLRB duties impartially.

Promises No Bias

Beeson has pledged that he would be unbiased.

The pension question arose during Beeson's questioning on an apparent contradiction between his testimony to the committee and an interview published by the San Jose Mercury.

Beeson has told the committee he has no agreement to return to the company, but committee Democrats produced an article from the Mercury quoting him as saying he expected to resume his duties with the San Jose firm at the end of his one-year term.

The nominee said he was misquoted. The newspaper insisted its story was correct.

GOP PLUNGES TOWARD VOTE ON BRICKER'S AMENDMENT

WASHINGTON (P) — Bereft of Democratic support, Republican leaders plunged head-on today toward showdown Senate votes on the Bricker constitutional amendment on treaty powers.

All but gone was any hope of compromise over the proposal, strongly opposed by President Eisenhower, to limit the scope of treaties and provide for congressional regulation of other international agreements.

A four-man backfield of Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.), Sen. Saltonstall (R-Mass.), Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich.) and Sen. Millikin (R-Colo.) picked up the White House ball with a series of amendments to revise the Senate-splitting proposal by Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio).

But the Republican leaders faced the stiffest kind of opposition from a former teammate in weeks of fruitless compromise efforts, Sen. George (D-Ga.), Knowland, the GOP floor leader, said voting may start in a lengthy session today.

Stiff Opposition
George appeared to have rallied a majority of the Senate's 48 Democrats behind his action in breaking off bipartisan negotiations for a compromise. He offered in the Senate yesterday a substitute for Bricker's proposal amendments of his own to which the White House has raised objections.

This left Knowland and his aides dependent on the Senate's 47 Republicans—and only a segment of them if Bricker does not go along—to support proposed constitutional changes to which Eisenhower would agree.

No Amendments May Win
The lineup was such that George seemed more likely to have his way than Knowland. But also, if the existing three- or four-way Senate split continued, there was a distinct possibility that no proposed amendment could muster the two-thirds majority required.

Bricker's original proposal seemed virtually dead. Using it as a basis for revision, the four GOP

Exped Gasoline War To Spread In Jersey

NEWARK, N. J. (P) — A new gasoline price war, now being waged in some spots in Bergen and Union, is expected to spread to three other New Jersey counties. Several stations in Bergen and Union counties cut the price of gas on Monday. John Dressler, president of the New Jersey Gasoline Retail Dealers Assn., said that was the start of a price war that would spread to Hudson, Essex and Mercer Counties.

But a different opinion was expressed by some gasoline retailers, not members of Dressler's group, who said they didn't expect a widespread gas price war.

Wierman's Mill

WIERMAN'S MILL—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lerew recently made a business trip to Carlisle.

Mrs. Laura Dubbs, Spring Grove, is spending some time with Mr. William Fall and son, Frank Fall.

Mrs. Elmer Yeagy is reported recovering from a recent illness. Glenn Hantz, Philadelphia, arrived Friday and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hantz, Lewistown, arrived Saturday to spend the weekend with their mother, Mrs. J. R. Hantz, and family.

Walter Stankas is reported improving rapidly after a recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Keagy and sons, John and Dick, and daughter, Linda, York, visited Mrs. Naomi Everhart, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lerew, Harrisburg, spent Sunday with Mr. Lerew's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Lerew.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Mumma, Harrisburg, and Mr. and Mrs. George A. Smith, Camp Hill, visited Mr. and Mrs. George P. Smith, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kieffer and two daughters, Mechanicsburg, visited Mr. and Mrs. Jonah Kieffer, Sunday.

leaders moved to revise it to amend Section 6 of the Constitution to provide that "no treaty made after the establishment of this Constitution shall be the supreme law of the land unless made in pursuance of this Constitution."

This provision, which would make past and future treaties subject to court review, had White House clearance.

"Which Clause" Out
Administration approval was also behind the plan to alter another section of the Bricker proposal to say that "a provision of a treaty or other international agreement which conflicts with this Constitution shall not be of any force or effect." This was the identical language used by George in a section of his substitute.

Ferguson said a motion would be made to strike out of Bricker's version a clause to which Eisenhower objected most vigorously. It says "a treaty shall be of no effect as internal law in the United States only through legislation which would be valid in absence of treaty."

Eisenhower has said this language, known as the "which clause," would subject some treaties to veto by the states—a contention Bricker disputes.

Sen. George Bolts
George and other Democrats—as well as Bricker—had agreed to these three actions in compromise efforts. But George broke away when the GOP leaders left out of their series of amendments his section reading:

"An international agreement other than a treaty shall become effective as internal law in the United States only by an act of the Congress."

George said this would give Congress a look at all international agreements, many of which he said are kept secret even from foreign relations committee members. Such executive agreements, unlike formal treaties, are not subject to ratification by the Senate.

George discounted administration objections that this section would interfere with the President's war powers and the right to give diplomatic recognition to other countries. George said those rights were spelled out elsewhere in the Constitution.

Rancher, Divorcee Are Wed; 7th For Her

BURBANK, Calif. (P)—Mrs. Lou Dell Spreckels, who was divorced in 1948 from sugar heir John D. Spreckels III, and Homer Hillman Paso Robles, rancher, were married last night.

Mrs. Spreckels testified at the divorce hearing that she had been married six times previously. In her marriage application yesterday she said she is 36. Hillman gave his age as 46.

tedly precarious fight in this congressional election year over new income tax cuts.

Tangle With Humphrey
Democratic Senators Douglas of Illinois and Fulbright of Arkansas tangled with Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey on the issue yesterday as the Economic Committee opened weeks of hearings on President Eisenhower's economic report.

Douglas and Fulbright argued that Eisenhower's tax policy is weighted heavily in favor of more incentives to business. Actually, they said, the biggest problem is shoring up the purchasing power of consumers to buy the goods industry already can produce.

They suggested an increase in personal income tax exemptions would be the best way to assure prosperity. A $100 increase in individual exemptions would save taxpayers about 2½ billion dollars a year.

Terms Kept Secret
"I took this action against Dick Haymes very reluctantly, only after he had repeatedly failed to live up to promises to help support his (three) children (by her) and also to repay thousands of dollars in money that I was compelled to pay to the government on income he had earned during our marriage."

"When a grown man drastically ignores his obligations, he makes drastic action the only possible answer."

DICK HAYMES ABLE TO LEAVE HOTEL ROOMS

NEW YORK (P) — Singer Dick Haymes and his actress wife Rita Hayworth had a clear path from their hotel suite today after being besieged for 24 hours by sheriff's deputies carrying a civil arrest order for Haymes.

The deputies arrived at the Hotel Madison suite Monday night at 8 p.m. with the order. They departed at about the same time last night when a compromise was reached between counsel for Haymes and his former wife, actress Joanne Dru, who obtained the arrest order.

Miss Dru, now the wife of actor John Ireland, claims Haymes owes her $33,323. In Hollywood last night a spokesman quoted her as saying:

"I took this action against Dick Haymes very reluctantly, only after he had repeatedly failed to live up to promises to help support his (three) children (by her) and also to repay thousands of dollars in money that I was compelled to pay to the government on income he had earned during our marriage."
